Stolen Auto Found In Rock River Sunday

EAR DRIVER
MAY ALSO BE
IN THE STREAMPaul Kopecek's Stolen
Auto Recovered Near
Cement Plant

A new Ford roadster, which was moved from Rock river Sunday afternoon has led to the searching for a driver which it is feared may be in the water between the Medusa Cement Company's plant and the I. N. hydro electric station. The car, a new Ford roadster, was the property of Paul Kopecek, who resides west of Dixon in Swissville and was reported to have been stolen from his garage last Monday night about 12 o'clock.

Emanuel May, who resides east of the city in the Bend and who is employed by Contractor D. L. Heagy in the completion of the city's stormwater system, discovered evidence of the car having gone into the river early Tuesday morning. Sunday morning the information was given to Sheriff Ward Miller who started an investigation immediately with the result that the car was pulled out of the deep hole yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock.

Saw Tracks in Gravel.
Mr. May had been in the habit of walking from his home in the Bend, down the River road to the Cement plant curve on route 2 where he met his employer and rode to his work in Dixon. Tuesday morning, he discovered the fresh tracks of an automobile about two miles east of the cement plant and traced them to the point where they swerved over a deep embankment into the deep hole in the Rock river. The wheel tracks in the gravel-covered gravel were plainly visible. May told Sheriff Miller.

Reluctant about turning in a report which might be without foundation and thinking that there was a possibility that the car had not been driven into the river, May said nothing for a few days, finally informing Contractor Heagy of his suspicions. Friday morning, May thought more of the possibility of the car being in the river and taking a boat went to the scene and prodding around believed that the car struck a wheel.

Some Oddities In
Wire News Today
From Various Parts

WOODPECKER IS DUMB.

Chicago, May 5.—(AP)—There is evidence to indicate that the woodpecker is a dumb bird.

In Lincoln Park a crowd gathered yesterday around a concrete lamp standard and watched a woodpecker whacking silly away at a steel band gridding the lamp. He pecked and pecked for half an hour. Then he flew away in disgust.

Some people in the crowd thought the woodpecker was a wee bit cuckoo.

IRISH BOY "O. K."
New York, May 5.—(UP)—Arriving today aboard the Anchor liner Camerona were 1,100 Scotch and Irish immigrants, 500 of them college and law students.

All except one of the 500 confided to officers and passengers that they thought it would be "perfectly adorable" to marry now that they were arriving in the United States.

The 500th proved to be a smiling, red-headed and blue-eyed fellow and was emphatic that the "boy friend" she left behind in Ireland was good enough for her.

HE LOOKS LIKE AL.
New York, May 5.—(UP)—When the United Fruit liner Tolosa arrived from Havana yesterday, its most prominent passenger turned out to be none other than His Honor, Mayor Anthony J. Peralta of Garfield, N. J.

Al during the trip Peralta, a social man, had been shunned by some fellow passengers and admired by others—but at a safe distance. When he offered a man a cigar the man jumped, and all because his honor resembled the Chicago citizen, Alphonse J. Capone.

But it was as nothing to the reception awaiting him at the dock here. Newspapers reporters and cameramen, augmented by a group of detectives were on hand, the reporters to ply him with questions, the cameramen to snap numerous pictures, and the detectives to show "Scarface Al" the quickest way to Grand Central terminal, where a train was just about to leave for Chicago.

Only by pulling aside his coat and revealing the diamond-studded gold badge given him by grateful citizens of Garfield, N. J., was Mayor Peralta able to convince the welcoming delegation of his identity.

Flight Of British
Dirigible Delayed

London, May 5.—(AP)—Official announcement was made today that the projected flight of the British dirigible R-100 to Canada will be delayed for a fortnight or three weeks.

It was said that repairs to the airship's tail elevator fin, damaged as it was being removed from the hangar April 24, could not be completed as quickly as was at first hoped.

Body Of Murdered
Woman In Theater

Cleveland, Ohio, May 5.—(AP)—The body of a woman about 50 years old was found wrapped in a blanket on the stairway of a deserted theater building here today.

The woman had been strangled. After a preliminary examination a coroner's physician said she had been murdered, probably about two weeks ago.

A city building inspector called to investigate the condition of the building, found the body.

In a dressing room off the deserted stage was found evidence indicating some one had used the place as a rendezvous. Cigarette stubs littered the floor.

FIVE DAY HONEYMOON OF
ROCKFORD COUPLE ENDED
TRAGICALLY ON SABBATHUnforgiving Father of Bride Murdered Unwelcome Swain

Rockford, Ill., May 5.—(AP)—The five-day honeymoon of Gordon L. Saaf, 24, was ended yesterday. He was shot and killed and his father-in-law, John Pokosa, police said, confessed the crime.

Saaf married 21-year-old Estella Pokosa last Tuesday. Her father opposed the match, so the couple eloped to Oregon. Four days were spent in Chicago and yesterday the couple returned to Rockford and went to the Pokosa home to affect a reconciliation.

Police said the father opposed the marriage because his daughter was Catholic and Saaf a Protestant.

Mrs. Saaf told police that when they reached her father's home, she left her husband in the living room with the father and went into a bedroom to rest. She was aroused, she said, by two shots. Running into the hallway, she saw her father dragging her husband's body in from the porch. She jumped from a window, she said and notified neighbors, who called the police.

Saaf's body was found in the hallway, two bullet wounds in the back; a revolver was found in a chair nearby.

Several hours later, Pokosa was picked up walking near his home. He was questioned and admitted the shooting, police said, but declared he only "shot to scare" Saaf.

It was expected that the April grand jury would be reconvened to hear the charges against Pokosa.

Saaf operated a radio shop here. Pokosa is a tailor who was divorced by his wife two weeks ago on grounds of cruelty.

J. Frank Kennedy
Of Nelson Is Dead

J. Frank Kennedy, owner of the Northwestern hotel at Nelson, passed away at his home Sunday morning at 5:30, his death resulting from apoplexy. He suffered a stroke Friday afternoon, from which he never regained consciousness.

Mr. Kennedy was born in Byron, Ill., June 11, 1880 and was the son of the late J. R. and Jennie Kennedy. He was a member of G. W. Ellis lodge, A. F. & A. M. of Rockford, the Freeport Consistory and of Mohammed Shrine of Peoria.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife and two children, J. Frank, Jr., and Marion; one brother, G. Fred Kennedy and a sister, Mrs. Frank S. Kennedy, both of Elmhurst.

Funeral services will be conducted from the family home at Nelson Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with interment in the Zion cemetery.

Leaps To Death In Chicago City Hall

Chicago, May 5.—(UP)—William C. Fay, chairman of Cicero, leaped to his death from the 11th floor of the city hall today, his body crashing into the skylight over the City Clerk's office.

The 90 employees in the offices scamped for safety as the glass showered over their desks but the body lodged in the skylight.

Fay was identified by papers in his pockets. Police were endeavoring to get into touch with his relatives who are believed to live in Cicero.

No suicide notes were found but several city employees on the 11th floor said he apparently was despondent and was pacing the corridors before the death jump.

Former Dixonite
Died This Morning

George Klefer of this city this morning received word of the sudden death of Jacob Fraehlich, a former well known resident of Dixon, who passed away this morning at his home in Jackson, Mich. The deceased formerly conducted a barber shop in Dixon, and left this city about 20 years ago. The remains will arrive in Dixon at noon tomorrow and will be taken to the Preston chapel. The funeral announcement and complete obituary will be published later.

A radio-receiving set invented by a resident of New York State is tuned by pressing buttons or moving levers, instead of turning dials.

TRAGEDY MARKS
LIFE OF BORIS
POLEN, CHICAGOBoth His Wives Died
Unnatural Deaths:
Last One a Suicide

Chicago, May 5.—(AP)—Unnatural death has been the fate of Boris Polen's two wives.

The first Mrs. Polen went down when the excursion boat Favorite tipped over in Lake Michigan in 1927. The second swallowed poison yesterday.

Since the first tragedy, Polen has had many moments of depression, for he lost not only his wife but his young daughter. Even since his second marriage these moments have occurred, and on such occasions he seeks solitude, remaining away from home several hours so as not to let the second Mrs. Polen suffer because of his grief.

Yesterday such a mood overcame him. He left home and walked for many hours. Returning, he was asked by his wife where he had been. He answered curtly and retired.

Later, awakening, he regretted the harshness of his reply, and went to his wife's room to tell her he was sorry. It was too late. She was dead.

PRISONER IN OHIO PEN IS FATALLY HURTBeaten by Fellow Convicts: Second Is Badly Injured

Columbus, O., May 5.—(AP)—One convict was near death today and another was suffering from cuts on the face as the result of fresh disturbances among rebellious Ohio penitentiary convicts last night.

Rufus Deeds, serving 10 to 25 years for robbery, received seven deep gashes on the head in a beating by his fellow convicts at the prison hospital it was feared he would not live. He was found on his cot in the tented stockade, erected within the yards to house prisoners who kept the institution in turmoil for days after the fire in which 320 inmates perished April 21.

Guards had no clue as to Deeds' attackers. Another prisoner whose name was not learned was set upon and cut about the nose. He refused to name his assailants.

A hole about two feet deep was found under one of the tents yesterday, leading guard officers to believe an attempt to tunnel to freedom might have been under way.

Otherwise the institution was calm over the week end and the task of re-identifying the convicts was started.

Spanish Students
Riot. One Killed

Madrid, May 5.—(AP)—A battle between rioting students of the San Carlos Medical College and police today resulted in casualties unofficially reported as one dead—a workman—and 17 injured. The authorities would give no official information regarding casualties or arrests.

Premier Berenguer and Cabinet members hurriedly met to discuss the situation caused by the presence in Madrid of Professor Miguel de Unamuno and the resulting student demonstrations.

They decided to call a special Cabinet meeting tonight.

LEADER OF REVOLUTION
IS LOCKED UPStrong Military Forces
Mobilized To Prevent
Serious Disorder

BY FRANCIS LOW
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Bombay, India, May 5.—(UP)—Strong forces of British and Indian troops were ordered mustered for any emergency in the chief cities of India today as the Mahatma M. K. Gandhi was put in a British jail—his most dangerous battle front in the Nationalist campaign for independence.

Bells tolled in Bombay, signifying a Nationalist call for a day of mourning as the man whom India's millions call the "Great Soul" was placed in Yeroda jail in Poona for an indefinite term. No formal charge was announced.

Hartals—days of cessation of work which are tantamount to paralyzing strikes—were declared in many cities where all shops were tightly shuttered and barred. Only Muslims and some factory workers hesitated to join the Bombay hartal, which was started under the eyes of heavy patrols of soldiers.

Troops and armored cars patrolled Ahmedabad, where a hartal paralyzed business; Peshawar was thronged by troops; the wife of the Mahatma led demonstrations at Jalapur where a hartal was declared; all business ceased at Navsari; the Surat district, where Gandhi was arrested, observed a day of mourning and processions and hartals were reported for various smaller centers.

The salt law was broken in many districts, including Broach, Surat, Alibag, Dharwar, Gontal, Ahmedabad, Peshawar and Benares. One of the persons arrested at Benares was released after he apologized. Others were arrested at Thanai Ankola, Nagpur, Ratnagiri and Arvi.

"I hope India will show her mettle and give a fitting reply to the government's unwarranted action," Mrs. Gandhi said when informed of her husband's arrest.

Congress leaders advised the people to remain calm but many small noisy processions were organized and paraded the Bombay streets.

Pickets were established in Bombay to enforce the hartal in sections where it was not joined voluntarily by shopkeepers and workers.

Mayor Of LaSalle
Died Saturday Eve

LaSalle, Ill., May 5.—(AP)—The body of Mayor Joseph S. Braygot, who died Saturday, lay in state today in the city hall with an honor guard from the American Legion.

The funeral with military honors will be held Wednesday. It will be attended by political leaders from over the state.

"Deadwood Dick" Of
Novel Fame Is Dead

Deadwood, S. D., May 5.—(UP)—"Deadwood Dick" Clark, hero of a generation of dime novel readers, died today in St. Joseph's hospital after an illness of several weeks.

Cancer, not old age, brought death to the plainsman in the sunset of a life that reads like a history of the old west. He was 84 years old.

NAMES REVIEW BOARD

For the first time in the history of Lee county, a complete Board of Review has been named to succeed itself. This was made possible this morning when Judge Leach, in the County Court renamed John P. Harvey of Amboy as the Democratic new member of the board. Mr. Harvey last year completed a term as a member of the board. Chairman Walter Ortgiesen of the Board of Supervisors, who was re-elected at the special organization meeting last month continues on the board. Amos Bosworth of this city is the hold-over member from last year. The reappointment of Mr. Harvey was taken as a consideration of competent responsibility and experience of the board membership. The members served the county tax payers last

ACRES OF BLACKENED RUINS
IN WAKE OF SERIOUS FIRES
ALONG ATLANTIC SEABOARDColorado City Threatened; Navy Pier is Destroyed

(BY UNITED PRESS)

Almost the entire north Atlantic seaboard—a region famous for its picturesque beauty—gazed today on acres of blackened ruins that lay in the wake of destructive fires.

Seven states were directly affected by the property damage, which ran into millions of dollars. Although a majority of the widespread conflagrations were under control, officials feared further loss in some sections should winds continue today.

Generally, damage resulted from apparently harmless grass fires which were quickly fanned into destructive blazes by brisk winds. Although the fires left marks from Delaware to New Hampshire, no deaths were reported, and few injuries.

The most disastrous fire occurred at Nashua, N. H., where sparks from a locomotive started a $5,000,000 conflagration. The city was virtually under martial law today.

Other fires were under control in Delaware, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Long Island and State Island and in Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

New York, May 5.—(AP)—Hundreds were homeless today and scores of communities contend losses mounting into millions of dollars as the result of fire in eastern seaboard states. The most disastrous fire destroyed the southeastern section of Nashua, N. H., where more than 500 persons were made homeless when flames consumed more than 225 homes, two churches, a school and four large industrial plants yesterday. Estimates of the loss ran from $2,500,000 up.

New York was encircled by brush fires.

On Staten Island brush fires destroyed 82 summer bungalows, damaged 200 others and threatened a colony of 3500 cottages until 20 fire companies, ferried over from Manhattan, brought the flames under control.

Smoke Hides Sun
An area 100 miles square on Long Island was dotted with brush and grass fire which spread a cloud of smoke over the island that blotted out the sunlight.

In southern New Jersey brush fires swept through thousands of acres and destroyed more than a score of buildings.

At Forked River 19 homes and the Presbyterian church were destroyed. Part of the village of Bassville was destroyed in a fire which burned a 12-mile path from Smithburg to Lakehurst. The naval station at Lakehurst was not damaged.

In the vicinity of Worcester, Mass., a score of forest and brush fires defied the efforts of firemen, state troopers and volunteers.

Many Forest Fires
A force of 500 men extinguished a forest fire between Glen Falls and Saratoga Springs, N. Y., after it had damaged several farm buildings and burned over 3500 acres.

A serious fire raged over Mt. Riga between Millerton, N. Y., and Sharon, Conn., threatening to denude the mountain of woods.

Valuable timber was destroyed in a fire which burned over a large area three miles south of Millboro, Del. Several houses and mills were destroyed in a forest fire within a few miles of Richmond, Va.

The town of Hope Valley, R. I., was threatened by a fire which burned along a 10-mile front through the woods in the southern part of the state.

OVER THREE MILE AREA
Nashua, N. H., May 5.—(AP)—More than 225 homes were in ruins today from a Sunday conflagration. Seven hundred persons were homeless. Estimates of the loss run from $2,500,000 up.

An area three miles in length, from the Nashua river to the Nashua Country Club, was bared by the flames. Two churches, a convent, a school four large industrial plants and the thickly settled Crown Hill residential district were destroyed.

The fire started early yesterday afternoon on a Boston & Maine wooden railroad bridge and was borne by a 40-mile-an-hour gale through the city. The flames burned themselves out late at night. The principal business section was not in their path.

Firemen from a dozen cities and towns brought apparatus to the city. Several companies of National Guardsmen patrolled the stricken area today.

The homeless gathered at the ar-

SNOW AND RAIN CAUSE DEATH IN
SO. CALIFORNIAWeather was Unusually Freakish On Coast
Over Week End

Los Angeles, May 5.—(AP)—Rising temperatures and clearing skies were promised throughout the Pacific southwest today. Week-end snow and rain storms caused one death in the Los Angeles area and disrupted transportation and communication systems in southern California and Arizona.

Heavy snows and cold weather in the San Antonio Mountains near Ontario, Cal., east of here yesterday claimed the life of Mrs. Mildred Percy, 35, former head of the Chicago Child Welfare League. The woman, who has been spending the winter in Pasadena, died of exposure after struggling in four-foot snowdrifts while on a hiking trip.

Los Angeles and adjacent territory experienced the heaviest May rain since 1921 with a total of 1.04 inches reported.

Snow fell steadily throughout Saturday night and Sunday in the mountain districts. Mount Wilson near Los Angeles is covered with snow half way down the mountain-side. Seven inches of snow fell at Big Pine, north of San Bernardino, and heavy falls were reported in the San Jacinto Range.

The highest temperature reported here yesterday was 56 degrees, and the lowest 48.

Memory and the Red Cross provided food and bedding.

Mayor William Sullivan estimated the loss at between 2,500,000 and $3,000,000 and City Engineer Fred L. Clark said that between 225 and 250 homes and buildings were burned.

FIRE ON NAVAL PIER
Norfolk, Va., May 5.—(AP)—Pier seven at the Hampton Roads naval operating base, reconditioned at a cost of $210,000 to house the airplane carrier Lexington, was destroyed today by a spectacular fire.

The flames, fanned by a southeast wind, spread from the 1,300 foot structure to the tugs Catawba and Kewadin and oil barges 6 and 56, moored alongside, damaging them. The barges were laden with 100,000 gallons of oil but the flames were extinguished before they reached the cargo.

The flames spread rapidly and the pier was enveloped almost before fighters arrived.

Crews of the Catawba and the Kewadin cut loose from the burning pier and soon had their own flames under control. Little damage was done to the tugs.

The barges also were cut loose and the fire aboard them was extinguished by fighters from tugs which raced to their assistance.

Naval base firemen reinforced by four companies from Norfolk and the first fire boat Vulcan, brought the pier under control after more than three hours fighting.

COLORADO CITY SUFFERS
Monte Vista, Colo., May 5.—(AP)—A fire that ravaged the principal business block of Monte Vista, causing estimated damage of $300,000, was placed under control today, but not until a company of Colorado National Guardsmen was called out to patrol the streets and prevent looting.

A violent wind storm whipped the flames and for hours the blaze defied the efforts of fire departments and more than 200 volunteer firemen.

Residents of neighboring villages attracted by the blaze swarmed into town in such numbers that it was necessary to call out the guard.

The fire started in the furnace room of a hardware store in the center of the business district, and quickly spread to adjoining buildings. It was barely under cover when another blaze in the lumber yard was discovered. Eight business houses and the lumber yard were destroyed.

OIL TANKS ON FIRE
Chicago, May 5.—(AP)—A dozen oil tanks of the Intercoastal Sales Corporation were swept by fire today after a gasoline truck burst into flames as it was being loaded. Thirty employees of the firm, located at McCook, a suburb, escaped uninjured.

Flames from the truck spread rapidly to a nearby warehouse in which many oil and grease barrels were stored. Soon the oil tanks caught fire, and exploded.

Emergency calls brought appar-

Seek Two Sailors
For Murder of Man

Chicago, May 5.—(AP)—His hands tied behind his back with a towel and his throat cut, the body of a man was found propped against a bed in the Weston Hotel on Madison street near the Chicago river today.

In his pocket was an employee's pass of the Wabash Railroad for use between Adrian and Detroit, Mich. It bore the name of M. A. Douglas.

The man had registered yesterday as J. Brown and had been accompanied by two men in U. S. Navy uniforms and a third in civilian garb. They had indicated they would remain a day and depart for Detroit, but the three had left later in the day.

MAN LIVES TO TELL HORRORS OF
"TAKEN FOR RIDE"Suspicion Of Policemen Proves Salvation for Earl Holmes

Chicago, May 5.—(UP)—The first man ever known to live to tell the horrors of being "taken for a ride" by Chicago gangsters, signed a felony complaint today against the three hoodlums who were arguing as to who was going to have the pleasure and privilege of killing him when a miracle happened and they were arrested.

The "ride" victim was Earl Holmes, 38, a wood carver, who tried to reform a gangster's "Moll," as he described her to police, because he wanted to marry her. He sought to force her to give up her racketeer associates by threatening to expose them. They found out about it and their retaliation—the usual one—was the "ride."

Holmes, badly injured after being tortured for hours, was alive today only because three policemen became suspicious when they saw an automobile turn down a lonely street early Sunday morning.

The officers followed the machine, saw it stop and a moment or so later came upon three men standing over Holmes, bound and lying semi-conscious on the ground. Close to his head was the muzzle of the revolver that was to finish him.

Resigned To Death
Holmes told the officers he had resigned himself to death and even welcomed it as escape from further torture. Just before he was rescued he said he heard the trio trying to decide which one of them should be allowed to fire the fatal bullet—all was the end of all past "rides."

The three men were identified as John Hennessy, Sam Baldino and Frank Favarullo, all "small time" hoodlums known to police. They were charged with kidnapping and attempted murder.

The wood carver's story of what happened to him at their hands resulted in the arrest of Anna Larson, 23, his sweetheart, and Margaret Russell, her friend.

He met Miss Larson several months ago, he said, and fell in love with her. He besought her to give up her gangster friends so that they could be married and live respectably, but she seemed reluctant. He finally wrote her a letter warning her that unless she broke away from her associates he would inform police as to their activities.

Letter Intercepted
This letter, police believe, was intercepted and led directly to the "ride" Holmes got early Sunday.

Miss Larson had agreed to go away with him Saturday night, he said, when she induced him to go to the Russell woman's home where the three hoodlums seized him.

"They took me into the bathroom, stripped off my clothes and tore away all marks of identification," Holmes asserted.

"What do you thing is going to happen to you?" one of them asked. "I knew all right and replied. 'It looks like you are going to take me for a ride.' They laughed and said, 'You're a smart guy.'"

Afterwards they slugged Holmes in the mouth with a blackjack, knocked him down repeatedly and kicked him, according to his story to police. They topped off their brutality, he declared, by strangling him with a clothline noose until he fainted.

"For three hours they kept it up," Holmes shuddered. "Sometimes I was unconscious. 'Take him outside and kill him—I don't want him bumped off here. The police bother me enough as it is.' The Russell woman told them and they threw me in the car and took me away."

"We were only kidding him," laughed Baldino when he was questioned.

"He's just a chump," was the way Anna Larson explained it when she was brought into the Detective Bureau.

Hero Of San Juan
Hill Died Sunday

Danville, Ill. May 5.—(UP)—Archie Farmer, 58, junkman, decorated for distinguished service as leader of his company in the charge of San Juan Hill in the Spanish-American war, died at his home here yesterday.

Farmer was a Sergeant in the 124th United States Infantry during the war and served under Col. Leonard Wood and Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt. Farmer was awarded a bronze medal in token of his heroism during the noted battle.

Preacher's Home
In Peoria Robbed

Peoria, Ill. May 5.—(AP)—A man identifying himself as Phillip Davis, 22, of Kansas City, was held today for burglarizing the home of Rev. E. T. Munns.

Davis was arrested as he was ransacking the Munns home while the minister and his family were at church last night.

Burnt matches found on the floor of the Munns home lead police to question Davis in connection with the robbery or gold valued at $1,700 from a dentist's office last night.

Burnt matches, police said, were also found on the floor of the office.

One Killed, Four
Hurt In Explosion

Liverpool, Eng. May 5.—(AP)—A terrific explosion in Bibby's oil cake mill on Great Howard Street this morning killed one man, injured four others so severely they are not expected to recover and accounted for about 100 other minor casualties.

Three upper floors of the building were enveloped by flames after the blast, which occurred just before noon. All traffic in the district, except for ambulances, was immediately suspended.

The explosion, occurring in the room where meal was stored for conversion into oil cakes, was believed to have been caused by internal combustion. One of the surviving workmen said the meal had been smoldering since Friday night.

The blast occurred on the eleventh floor and that victims had little opportunity to escape.

Youth Claims New
Junior Air Record

Los Angeles, May 5.—(UP)—Frank Goldsborough, 19-year-old aviator, who yesterday claimed a new junior transcontinental flight record, will attempt to better his own time when he flies back to New York, he said today.

The youthful pilot said he planned to hop off tomorrow and would try to cut down his time of 34 hours and three minutes for the trip.

Goldsborough appeared unexpectedly at the Grand Central airport yesterday after preparations had been made for his reception at the Western Air Express field.

He seemed pleased with the outcome of the trip, and said he would claim the record on his own log of the journey which showed he had beaten the previous record of 40 hours.

Jimerson Woman Is Given Week's Delay

Buffalo, N. Y. May 5.—(UP)—Lila Jimerson, the gaunt Indian woman who has pleaded guilty to "mental murder" and promptly repudiated the plea, won a week's respite today from the trial in which she is willing to wager her life on the skill of two lawyers.

Judge George H. Rowe granted the plea of Lila's counsel for a week's recess after they told him they had entered the case only a week ago and had not had time to prepare a defense to the charge that the Indian woman indicted Nancy Bowen to kill Mrs. Clothilde Marchand.

District Attorney Guy Moore offered no objection to the plea made by the lawyers—John F. McGovern and Thomas F. Rogers.

English Aviatix
Attempts Long Trip

Croydon, Eng. May 5.—(AP)—Amy Johnson, 23-year-old English aviatix, whose longest flight has been only 399 miles, started at 8:40 A. M. today in a tiny moth plane on a lone flight of 22,000 miles to Australia and return.

Her plane is named the "Jason" after the Grecian hero who sought the Golden Fleece. In it the golden-haired miss, who is a member of the London Aeroplane Club, hopes to best the record of Bert Hinkler, who flew to Australia in fifteen days.

THANK YOU

N SWITZERLAND one idle day, As on the grass at noon we lay, Came a grave peasant child, and stood Waiting the strangers eat their food. And what we offered her she took

In silence, with her quiet look, And when we rose to go, content Without a word of thanks she went.

Another day in sleet and rain, I choose the meadow path again, And partly turning chanced to see My little guest friend watching me With eyes half-hidden by her hair Blowing me kisses unaware That I had seen, and still she wore The same grave aspect as before.

And some recall for heart's delight A sunrise, some a snowy height, And I a little child that stands And gravely kisses both her hands. —Hugh Macnaghten, in "Idyll."

John D. Congratulates His One Time Enemy

WASHINGTON, May 5—(UP)—Mother Jones and her one time bitter enemy, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., have buried the hatchet!

A telegram from John D. Jr., to the 60-year-old labor crusader has ended a long-standing feud which reached a climax during the mine massacre at Ludlow, Colo., in 1914. At that time, guards at mines owned by the Rockefeller interests fired on strikers, killing 12 men and 21 women and children.

The little Irish woman, who only Thursday celebrated her 100th anniversary, held the Rockefeller's responsible and fought them "with all the hatred that was in me." But now all that is past, Mother Jones says, as a result of a telegram in which Rockefeller, Jr., congratulated her on reaching the century mark.

"Your loyalty to your ideals, your fearless adherence to your duty as you have seen it, is an inspiration to all who have known you," the telegram said.

Barnum of Morrison, president of Whiteside county.

The morning session of the convention opened at 9 o'clock with the beautiful singing of "America the Beautiful." Invocation was offered by Rev. C. W. Loughlin. The business consisted of the reports of the treasurer, auditing, revision and credential committees and election of officers.

Reports of clubs and three minute talks by clubs of Lee, JoDavies and Whiteside counties took place at 10 o'clock. The address of the morning was given by Mrs. William F. Farrell on the "Value of Committees." A noon day luncheon was served by the Erie ladies to the visiting delegates.

The afternoon's program convened at 1:30 o'clock, when the introduction of past district presidents introduction of new officers and a Dirigible program were scheduled to be presented. One hour was devoted to an American home program before the closing song, "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" and adjournment.

What Paris is Wearing

By K. DORSAY

PARIS—One more evidence of the Paris revival of 1830 fashions is in the new jewelry launched by prominent designers—light colored stones, enameled in bright colors. Immense beads of crystal, topaz and quartz are used to make long necklaces that are enameled in brilliant reds, yellows and greens. These bright-colored costume accessories are worn by French women, with plain black evening gowns.

The current type of enameled jewelry is different from its ancestor of a hundred years ago in design only. Instead of the flowers and bow-knots seen on old-fashioned pieces of jewelry, the modern versions of these necklaces are enameled in simplified designs—squares, and other geometric forms.

The first of these new necklaces to make its bow to Paris is shown with a Molyneux gown of dull black crepe, in sheath silhouette. The necklace itself is formed of cloudy crystal beads, flanked by roundels of rhinestones, alternating with cubes of clear rock crystal, with their edges enameled with narrow strips of black.

neither absent nor tardy the entire year.

Joseph Crawford told of some of his experiences in Florida following the program. The talk was most interesting and greatly enjoyed. Mr. Crawford took group pictures of those in attendance at the picnic. The entire day proved to be a great success.

Stony Point School Closes with Picnic

The Stony Point School closed the school year Friday with a picnic. About one hundred pupils, parents, and friends enjoyed a delicious scramble dinner at noon. The children spent the afternoon in playing games.

Virginia Wombwell of the Primary Room, and Irene Shifley, Lorraine Jones, and Wilbur Jones of the upper grade room received certificates of award for perfect attendance throughout the entire school year.

Earlier in the year Joe Vlad and Mary Vlad of the Upper Grades room were presented with pins as a reward for perfect attendance for thirty months.

Virginia Wombwell and Doris Bay of the primary room, and Marion Gleesner of the upper grades room, received prizes for having the best records in spelling.

There has been a total enrollment of 71 in both rooms during the year. No time has been lost this term except the days taken off for vacation. Mrs. George McKenney and Miss MayBel Stanley are the teachers in the school.

ADVICE FROM OVERSEAS.

It seems to be the chief function of visiting Europeans to give advice to the United States. Since we are gradually learning how to ignore such advice, and since the giving of it seems to give pleasure to the donors, the whole system is all very nice. However, it might be well for our advisors, now and then, to get their facts straight.

A few days ago two distinguished European journalists were in Washington. Entertained at a dinner party, they arose afterward to speak their minds.

One of them, Andre Geraud of Paris, had this to say: "Your present position is unexampled in the history of the world. Recently you only had to take the trouble to file a request to get from proud England a 50 per cent share in the imperium of the seas."

The other, Wickham Steed of London, said this: "You have asked and obtained only parity of strength. You have not sought parity of responsibility."

Those two remarks—worth noticing because they represent so well the condescending of most Europeans—seem to us to be somewhat wrong-end-to.

Someone should tell these visitors that America did not "ask" for naval parity. America granted it.

In 1921 the United States had, in warships built, building and appropriated for, the most powerful navy on earth. No other nation was able to build up to us. If this country had desired it could have kept itself in first place without the slightest difficulty.

But America did not choose to do so. Voluntarily, at the Washington conference, it threw away millions of dollars worth of new warships and gave up the chance of having unchallenged naval dominion.

That needs to be remembered. We are being told, too often, that we are too intensely nationalistic, too selfish. Let the visiting Europeans bear in mind that we gave parity; we did not ask for it, or "file a request." This "proud Britain" that M. Geraud speaks of was very glad to get parity.

And what is this talk about "seeking parity of responsibility"? It does not, really, mean anything; but what the gentleman evidently had in mind was that it is somehow our duty to embroil ourselves so thoroughly in Europe's various intrigues that we would inevitably become involved in the next war that breaks out over there. Perhaps he can demonstrate that that is really our solemn duty, but it will take some tall talking.

It is just as well that this country has developed a knack for letting this advice pass in at one ear and out at the other. Regardless of that, however, our self-appointed advisors really should get their facts straight.

PEANUT POLITICS.

It is not quite 11 months since the Senate passed the Norris resolution to end the "lame duck" sessions of Congress.

As to the merits of this resolution there can be no argument. There is no valid reason for allowing congressmen defeated at the polls to spend an additional 13 months in office. There are all kinds of very weighty reasons against it.

But the Norris resolution still slumbers in the House of Representatives, which in former years has killed four similar resolutions.

The House, however, has managed to do this much; continuing to ignore the Norris Bill, it has sent to committee an identical resolution fattered by a Massachusetts member. Apparently the House finds itself unable to put off the passage of this needed reform any longer; but by sidetracking the Norris resolution it is trying to take from the Nebraska senator the credit that is due him.

It has seldom played a pettier brand of peanut politics.

OHIO PRISON RIOT.

Although reports from the Ohio penitentiary continue to be somewhat vague and contradictory, one thing seems rather obvious: there has been, somewhere, a dreadful amount of bungling and inefficiency there at Columbus.

The prison itself was fearfully over-crowded and sadly out of date, of course. And the fire in itself was enough to upset the routine of the most carefully-run institution. Those things, to be sure, go without saying.

Yet the amazing fact remains that a solid week after the last dead body had been carried out of the prison, discipline was still broken down. More than 1200 convicts were still utterly defiant. The state's most dangerous and desperate wards were still telling the state where to get off—and were getting away with it.

A new sugar made from cotton-seed hulls is called xylos. This may not mean much to you, but it's great news for the fellow who gets up the cross-word puzzles.

An Iowa attorney wrote that "women are like whisky." What a compliment this might have been in pre-prohibition days!

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The sport balloon sailed round and round. Somebody cried, "Look at the ground. It's far, far down below us. Gee, I'd hate to drop from here. As long as this balloon will run around 'till we're a lot of fun," then Scouty said, "Don't worry, 'cause there's not a thing to fear."

"The pilot knows his business, lad, and really, you should be real glad that you were taken on this ride. There's no cause for alarm. As long as we are brave and bold and do exactly as we're told I feel that I can promise you that we'll come to no harm."

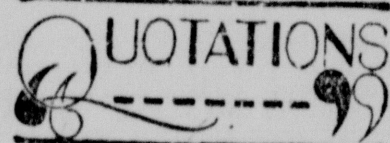

"You're right, my boy," the pilot said. "Just look at clouds up over head. Instead of looking at the ground. Then you will be all right. 'Twill make you dizzy if you glare because of space that's there. And, anyway, the clouds, I think, are quite a pretty sight."

The Tinymites took his advice and found the sky scenes very nice. The pilot then exclaimed, "as long as we are up in air and all the breeze seems blowing right, I'll take you to a thrilling sight. The Berlin Stadium is near. We're heading right for there."

They reached the stadium real quick and then the pilot's clever trick took all of them right down to earth. They jumped out on the ground. "We're in the stadium," cried one. "Oh, this will be a lot of fun." Not far away some German girls, in track suits, soon were found. "Oh, look!" cried Scouty. "It's a race. Come on, let's find a real good place to watch them run." So to the grand stand they all promptly tore. They found a spot with real good view and then, the next thing that they knew, the girls began to race, which made the Tinymites all roar.

ARBOR DAY

Arbor Day, the annual tree-planting day now generally observed throughout the United States and in parts of Canada and Great Britain was originated in the state of Nebraska in 1872. While Nebraska commemorates the day on April 22, most states observe it on May 5. The particular date selected necessarily varies with the climate and the season, from January in Florida to April or May in most of the northern states.

The pioneer mover was J. Sterling Morton, member of the Nebraska State Board of Agriculture and later Secretary of agriculture during President Cleveland's second term. He offered a resolution recommending that people throughout the state plant trees on the day named with the stipulation that the board offer a prize of $100 to the agriculture society or that county which should plant the greatest number of trees.

BANISH MUSIC?

"PLEASE don't," plead millions of theatersgoers.

"Better not," warn wise showmen. "Sure we will," declare industrialists who control canned music in the theatres. "The public can learn to like records as well as orchestras. Anyway, that's what they're going to get."

And so the issue is defined: Shall talking pictures be used as an excuse for reducing the theatre to a dehumanized museum (without reduction in admission charges)? Or, shall the atmosphere of the theatre be retained and the cause of culture served through a victory for music? Managers of high-class theatres recognize that real music is essential, and so they continue to provide it. Others must be shown.

"ONE STEP CLOSER AND I JUMP!" CRIED the LAST of the DUBERVILLES

"B-but Tess, I'm asking you to be my wife," stammered Sir Sidney Sissingham.

"What," cried the fiery fraulein, "you'd call me 'wife' in rasping tones like those. Never! Before you dare presume, sir, learn what wonders, upon frayed vocal cords, are worked by honey-smooth, queen-leaf tobacco. Relieve my tortured ears and your tortured throat with OLD GOLD. Mellow your speaking voice, calm that cackling cough and soothe that squawk. OLD GOLD yourself, Sir Sidney. There's not a bark in a billion."

WIRE MAKERS IN 10-6 VICTORY AT WALTON SUNDAY

McClintock Starred on Mound For Reynolds Clouting Team

The Reynolds Wire Company's base ball team defeated Walton at the latter's field Sunday afternoon by a score of 10 to 6. McClintock pitched for the wire drawers and went the entire route, allowing but ten hits. Condon was on the receiving end.

Dunseth started for Walton and lasted for four innings allowing eight hits. He was relieved by Bushman who went for four innings allowing three hits. Beene then was sent to the mound and finished the game being touched for three hits. McCaffrey and Bushman alternated in the catching. Dunseth, the rangy Lee Center twirler fanned five, Bushman six and McClintock, two. The score:

BOWLING NEWS

BY ED WORLEY

Undoubtedly the principal factor in this week's bowling proved to be the jump taken by Hodson and Hargraves who rolled a 1106 count, from sixth position to second. Also the drop taken by Hink and McManus from second to fifth position. Fallstrom and Senneff continue however to hold their lead by a 17 pin majority. Smith and Reese are still hovering in third position as a result of their 1059 count this week. The high single game this week was W. Lang's 256 count and in addition his 606 total took series honors. Lang and Chapman's total of 1111 being high for the entire week.

Groomed for American Cup Eliminations

The graceful yacht Enterprise, pictured here, is being groomed for the elimination runs which are to decide the American Cup defender. Above you see the rakish craft as she cleaved the waters of Long Island Sound with Harold S. Vanderbilt, wealthy sportsman and one of the owners, at the helm. The 165-foot high mast—tallest ever put on a racing craft—is shown clearly in the photo at the right. The Enterprise is the first of four yachts to be built for competition in the eliminations.

Two other champions will swing into action during the week but neither will risk his crown. Sammy Mandell, lightweight king, takes on Tommy Grosan, Omaha Puncher, at Omaha, on Friday, and Bat Batolino of Hartford, Conn, featherweight title holder, meets Lew Massey of Philadelphia, at the Philadelphia Arena tonight.

In New York Tony Canzoneri lines up against Harry Carlton, Jersey City lightweight, tonight.

Heavyweight Mat Stars Meet Tonight

Los Angeles, May 5—(AP)—Gus Sonnenberg and Everett Marshall tonight will settle to their own satisfaction at least, the much discussed and frequently claimed sobriquet, "world's heavyweight wrestling champion."

Sonnenberg's claim to the throne dates back to a victory over Ed "Strangler" Lewis in Boston, some one hundred fifty bouts past, which figured on the twelve months a year basis, came in January 1929. Marshall hails from La Junta, Colo., and has been crushing bones professionally for only a year and a half.

Tonight's exhibition is expected by Promoter Lou Daro to exceed the generally recognized record gate for such affairs, set at $87,559 in Chicago September 4, 1911, when the Gotch-Heckenschmidt set-to occurred.

DIXON SECOND IN CONFERENCE MEET SATURDAY

Sterling High Captured First Honors In DeKalb Contests

BY ROBERT LESAGE

The Illinois Northern Athletic Conference track and field meet was held at DeKalb last Saturday and due to the fine weather a fair sized gathering of enthusiasts were on hand to watch the events. The schools entered and their total points are:

Sterling	49 points
Dixon	37 points
Belvidere	32 points
DeKalb	26 points
Rochelle	21 points

Two men were tied for high point honors in the affair, Plowman of Dixon and Higby of Sterling, each taking 2 firsts. Plowman, captain of the Purple and White track squad, took first in both the hurdle races while Higby accounted for his points after star performances in the broad jump and 220 yard dash.

Sterling Wins Trophies. As champions of the meet, the Sterling outfit were awarded a beautiful bronze trophy, representing a track man. Winning the relay they also received the silver loving cup given the team placing first in that event.

The relay team consisted of Higby, Betts, Knox and Spears. With his usual form Higby starting the race for Sterling set up such a pace and kept it, that by the time he had reached Betts and passed him the baton, he still was about 50 feet in the lead.

Sterling was also very proficient in the art of handling the weights in all three events, discus, shot put, and javelin, acquiring first and second places, and with Higby's flashy work they had little difficulty in bringing home the bacon.

Dixon Takes Second. In the preliminaries the local presenters an exceptionally well balanced outfit qualified men in all the events but the 50 yd. dash, the 220 yd. dash, and the discus. The finals found them still carrying on their very efficient work and ended by placing in all the events they entered except in the broad jump and the mile.

The high jump was a beautiful affair with Strong of Dixon taking first place. Jumping with great coolness and with an air of ease and grace he cleared the bar at 5 feet 6 inches. He jumps the scissors and though he takes a very easy run before taking off he has such a spring in his legs he simply seems to float over the bar.

Plowman, by romping over the hurdles in perfect form, topped first place in both the 120 yd. high hurdles and 220 yd. low hurdles. Plowman accounted for second place in the latter event and though finishing second in the former, he knocked over three hurdles and was disqualified.

The pole vault was a beautiful affair with Brunett of Dixon taking second place and Ogen of Dixon, third place. Brunett was vaulting in great form and went out at 11 feet after just barely knocking off the bar for 3 successive times. Besides vaulting in great order Brunett also took second place in the 100 yd. dash.

In the shot put Wolford of Dixon tied with Wouri of DeKalb and Esposito of Rochelle for third place, a very freakish coincidence. The javelin throwing contest resulted in Ogen and C. Daniels taking third and fourth places respectively. Both were slightly off form and ran into plenty of competition.

Mile and 880 Yd. Run. The mile was taken by King of Rochelle. Sterling took the lead from the start and held it for 3 laps, but on the fourth and final lap King forged ahead and with a fine burst of power at the finish broke the tape a winner by at least 100 feet. Wouri of Dixon tried hard and ran a good race but finished fifth.

Covert of the purple and white squad pacing along in the 880 yd. ground crossed the tape for third place. Neff of Belvidere took first time 2 min. 12.8 sec. is faster than he is used to and besides this he received a dirty deal on the curve. The man responsible was disqualified but as a result Covert was forced to take third when he might have had second.

Due to the fact Higby of Sterling was not entered in the 440 yd. dash it was a rather slow affair, the time being 57.2 seconds while Higby burns up the cinders in the same race to the tune of 52.06 flat. The only thing that kept Higby from making three firsts for Sterling was the fact that an athlete can only enter in two events. Waugh of Belvidere took first and Abbot running the race of his life took second.

Conference Meet Results. 50 yd. dash: Whitehead, Belvidere, first; Kovich, DeKalb, second; Toner, Sterling, third; Nori, DeKalb, fourth. Time 5.9 seconds. 100 yard dash: Draper, Rochelle, first; Brunett, Dixon, second; Beals, DeKalb, third; Waugh, Belvidere, fourth. Time 11.2 seconds. 120 yd. high hurdles: Plowman, Dixon, first; Snavey, Sterling, second; Schunerman, Sterling, third; Kovich, DeKalb, fourth. Time 19.00 seconds. 220 yd. low hurdles: Plowman, Dixon, first; Plangman, Dixon, second; Schunerman, Sterling, third; Hunt, DeKalb, fourth. Time 29.00 seconds. 220 yd. dash: Higby, Sterling, first; Neff, Belvidere, second; Beals, De-

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

Three clubs which have been thrilling the fans by scoring runs in big bunches and at the last possible moment in the games have been Cleveland Indians.

Brooklyn and the Cardinals have staged a series of slugging battles at St. Louis that never were decided until the final out was made, but on each occasion, the Robins came out ahead by a run or two to sweep the four game series and to carry their winning streak to seven games.

A double victory yesterday put the Robins in fourth place in the National League standing.

On Saturday St. Louis tied the score in the ninth and barely missed again in the tenth when Brooklyn scored five runs and St. Louis four.

Yesterday, Ray Phelps, Robin rookie, outpitched Bill Hallahan to win the first game, 2 to 1, without any Cardinal rallies but in the second the Cards repeated their act of getting four runs in the ninth and carried the battle to 11 innings before the Robins scored three runs to win, 11 to 10.

Three times in succession, Cleveland put on late rallies against the Boston Red Sox and won by doing it. They came from far behind yesterday scoring five runs in the ninth inning and one in the tenth for an 8 to 7 victory. This sixth successive triumph put the Indians in first place in the American League as the St. Louis Browns won their second game in succession from Washington by an 8 to 6 score.

The New York Yankees brought another chance in the American League standing, moving into sixth place ahead of Boston by beating the Chicago White Sox, 7 to 4. Babe Ruth's third home run of the year helped the Yanks considerably. It came in the eighth inning, just as Chicago was threatening.

In the fourth American League game, Bill Shores of the Athletics and George Uhle of Detroit staged a battle that remained a 1-1 tie for six innings, then the Philadelphia sluggers pounded out six runs and a 7 to 1 victory in the last three frames.

The Cincinnati Reds altered the National League standing considerably by downing the New York Giants, 8 to 4, behind the good pitching of Jackie May. The Giants dropped into second place behind the idle Pittsburgh Pirates through the defeat while the Reds jumped from last place to sixth.

The Chicago Cubs won another close game from Philadelphia 8 to 7 when Lou Koupal made a costly wild pitch in the ninth inning and let Dan Taylor cross the plate with the deciding run. The Phillies had just completed an uphill struggle to tie the score with two runs in the first half of the ninth.

Chicago, May 5—(AP)—National League clubs will not look at the pitching of Guy Bush, Chicago Cub right-hander, except possibly in relief roles, for another two weeks.

The Mississippi suffered an injury to his pitching arm during the home opening series with St. Louis and the member had failed to show rapid improvement.

Bob Osborn today was to be given a chance as a starting pitcher.

Chicago, May 5—(AP)—Fred Husser, 32 years old, played ball yesterday. On his way home he was obliged to stop at the home of a relative to rest.

There he died. Physicians ascribed death to heart failure, induced by over-exertion in the ball game.

INDEPENDENTS IN SHUTOUT VICTORY OVER SYCAMORERS

Visitors are Held To Trio Of Hits By Petty, Prestegaard

The Dixon Independents won their first game of the season from the Sycamore Sons by a score of 8-0. The Independents hit McCarty hard, while the Sycamore outfit could get only 3 hits off of Prestegaard and Petty.

The game was delayed because the Sycamore battery was late in arriving. In the first inning Dixon scored 3 runs on 5 hits and a base on balls. Rink doubled, W. Hargraves singled, Gunn drove in both runners with a double to right center. Wittke was out. Weeks drove a scorching liner over third base for 2 sacks. He was caught off of second. Wilson was passed and Bob Hargraves singled both runners cied on bases when Ben Hargraves flied out.

The Independents had the bases loaded in the second but didn't score. In the fifth Ben Hargraves doubled. Petty was safe on an error. W. Hargraves singled scoring two runs.

In the eighth the Independents scored three more runs. Rink was safe on an error. Bill Hargraves sacrificed. Gunn also survived on an error. Wittke was hit walked. Skelton was safe on a fielder's choice. Rink and Gunn scoring on the play. Wilson drove Skelton in with a single.

In the fourth inning Kiernan singled for Sycamore and Burchfield followed with another single. Cruse struck out and Fencion hit into a double play. In the fifth another double play prevented Sycamore from scoring. These were the only two chances Sycamore had.

The Independents played errorless ball and although they got 12 hits they left 11 men on bases.

MONK'S MOUND MUSEUM WOULD HOLD UP RELICS

Movement Started to Place Early Trophies Atop Big Hill

BY LELAND L. SHESLEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
East St. Louis, Ill.—(UP)—Old Monk's Mound—the third largest artificial structure of its kind in the world—towering high above the 50 surrounding mounds as their acknowledged monarch, may reclaim the relics which have been wrested from its subjects.

A movement is underway to build a $3,000,000 museum on top of the mound—a crown of undisputed rulership over the scene of the ceremonial of the mound builders, staged in the days before the white man set foot on this continent.

Should the supporters of the movement be successful the museum will house all available relics which have been unearthed throughout the years.

The mounds—located a few miles northeast of this city—at one time totaled more than 100 but the number has dwindled to about 50 as the march of civilization necessitated their removal.

Height of the mounds range from five feet to 150 feet and cover a territory three miles long by two miles wide. Monk's mound reaches 150 feet skyward and its base covers 12 acres. It is estimated that it took more than 1,000,000 cubic feet of dirt to build the mound.

Old Monk's 50 remaining subjects will remain intact, for the state of Illinois has converted the entire section into a state park and no more will their secrets be revealed—for excavation is prohibited.

Failure by archeologists to realize the importance—or even the existence—of these mounds probably will be the reason that further information concerning the builders of the mounds will remain a closed book.

It was not until recent years that archeologists were convinced that the mounds were artificial. Chief among the scientists who believed the mounds would reveal a story of a prehistoric life was Professor Warren K. Moorehead, of Andover, Mass., who is responsible for the most extensive research in this territory.

Professor Moorehead, during his three years of research from 1921 to 1923, came to the conclusion that the area of the mounds was the ceremonial ground of a people numbering 100,000.

The various mounds, the professor found, were used for various ceremonial purposes. Some of the mounds, his research revealed, were the burial sites of the mound builders.

Pottery, and other relics, found buried in the section, found some of the finest specimens of earthenware. Fine arrowheads, axes and knives were also found revealing highly workmanship.

One peculiar feature of the mound builders is that they did not complete their mounds during a short period but their construction came in intervals, covering, probably, several years. This was indicated by the dirt which showed traces of sod every few inches, when excavation was in progress.

The presence of marine shell shells indicate that the mound builders carried on commerce with tribes of the extreme south, probably in Louisiana, the professor believes.

Since the white men settled in the territory of the mounds the individual elevations have been named. Monk's mound came by its name following the establishment of a mission there by the Trappists Monks in 1839.

The monks planted trees on the mound and a few of the pear trees still bear fruit. The names of other mounds are less distinguished.

Wealthy Woman Flyer Plans New York-to-Ostend Hop

Here is another society woman who is planning "a flying trip to Europe"—and she really means just that. For Grace Lyon, above, millionaire-aviatrix of Long Beach, N. Y., and San Pedro, Calif., has announced she will attempt a trans-Atlantic flight in her own plane next summer from Roosevelt Field, Long Island, to Ostend, Belgium. She is to fly a special craft that is being built for her by Martin Jensen, well known aviator.

The One County Institute of the W. C. T. U. will be held in the Lutheran Parish house, Friday, May 9, beginning at 10 o'clock. A scramble dinner will be held at noon, which will be followed by a very interesting program.

Class No. 5 of the Methodist Sunday school met at the home of Mrs. Grant Burman Friday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Quest and Mrs. Edith Heckert being the assistant hostesses. There were 17 members present. Following the business meeting refreshments were served.

The last meeting of the year for the Rural Teachers' Reading Circle was held at the Exchange Hotel Friday evening. There were 25 present. A delicious supper was enjoyed at 6:30 after which the following program was given:

Talk, "Playground Equipment"—Pauline Bellows.

Vocal solo—Elizabeth Ashford.

Funny Happenings in School—Mrs. Lydian Bon, Mrs. Anna Powell.

"The Battle For Better Schools"—Marjorie Flory.

Reading—Helen McKee.

Instrumental Solo—Norma Poole.

"Making Schools Adequate for Harder Tasks"—Lucille Wade.

Vocal Solo—Opal Thompson.

Reading—Marguerite Poole.

"Experiences of a Janitor in the Rural School"—Adeline Cross.

Mrs. Helen Bentley had written the above but was unable to be present on account of illness and Miss Cross read the paper.

Mrs. Ruth Sifer was elected president of the Circle for next year.

O. E. Metzler transacted business in Freeport Saturday.

Arnold Duffley spent the week end in Hazelhurst with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Duffley.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Duffley spent the week end in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Powell moved Saturday from the Mrs. Ella Carter property on W. Oregon St., to the stands today—doing millions of dollars of business, handling hundreds of carloads of butter and eggs and thousands of orders annually.

The Exchange recently moved into a new 17-story building standing at Franklin and Washington streets, just at the edge of the loop. Its trading floor is one of the best in the country. The Exchange is a co-operative organization, declaring no dividends and operating on a non-profit basis. A nominal charge is made to buyer and seller for each transaction on the floor. This charge goes for operation and into the general fund maintained for use in cases where the Exchange steps in to complete a transaction.

Prior to the existence of the Exchange, if a brokerage house failed before delivery of a future contract, the buyer or seller, as the case may be, lost whatever money he had involved in the transaction. Now the exchange stands behind every transaction, acting as buyer or seller if a brokerage house is forced to suspend.

The Exchange sees a need now for a medium to handle other commodities as well as butter and eggs and cheese. In cases where there is a business, carrying on transactions on a large scale and yet too small to maintain its own exchange, the facilities of the Mercantile Exchange would be used for these future contracts to be executed.

New and greater fields for the speculator would be afforded and in addition the Exchange members feel they can aid the smaller groups by facilitating handling, insuring fulfillment of contracts and standardization of the grades of the products.

Daily Health Talk

Boston, Mass.

(This series of articles is prepared under the direction of the Gorgas Memorial Institute, which is organized to perpetuate the life work of Major General Gorgas in preventing unnecessary illness. Headquarters of the Institute are at 1331 G Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.)

If a diabetic dodges the three plagues—gangrene, coma and the quack—and takes his insulin, when his doctor says he needs it, he stands a good show of living as long as his neighbor of the same age.

A DIABETIC'S TONGUE OR HIS TOES. "Put out your tongue," said the diabetic's doctor of the OLD school. "Show me your toes," says the doctor of the NEW. And the reason is plain, because many more diabetics succumb to troubles with the feet and legs than to those of the face and head. Formerly one diabetic in eight above the age of fifty died of gangrene, but today only one in eleven. The number would be far less if every diabetic washed his feet every night, softened his calluses with lanolin, had a chiropodist or someone with bright eyes and clean hands pedicure his cleaned feet instead of hacking his own unbatheed toes in the dark with an unsterilized knife or an old pair of scissors. Old diabetics have poor circulation and diminished sensation in their feet, therefore they should protect them day and night. This means care in choosing shoes and in breaking in the new pair, in avoiding injuries, and the substitution of woolen socks at night for hot water bags or electric pads.

INTELLIGENT DIABETICS NEED

NOT FEAR COMA. Intelligent diabetics no longer need to fear diabetic coma, which only a generation ago caused more than half of all diabetic deaths. It is almost as stupid and careless for a diabetic to fall into coma as it is for him to neglect the care of his feet. Diabetics should never omit insulin as long as sugar shows in the urine with the Benedict test and this test every diabetic should know. If a diabetic feels sick, he should (1) call his doctor (2) go to bed (3) drink a cup of hot liquid every hour (4) take an enema (5) keep warm and (6) secure a nurse or someone to care for him.

INSULIN THE ONLY DIABETIC MEDICINE. If you are a diabetic and wonder about the value of any advertised remedy for diabetes other than insulin, consult your doctor or write the Medical Director of your insurance company or of any large insurance company. Insurance companies are organized to make money and their profits come from the long lives of their policy holders. It pays them to tell you the truth.

AVIATORS PRAISED

Fresno, Calif., May 5.—(UP)—Lieut. W. A. Maxwell and Serg. J. H. Arthur of March Field received today the plaudits of Army air officials for averting tragedy in an accident in which six enlisted men saved their lives by leaping from a disabled plane with parachutes.

Lieut. Maxwell and Serg. Arthur stayed with the crippled plane and succeeded in bringing it down in a vineyard in a semi-crash landing from which they miraculously escaped uninjured.

The accident occurred as the plane, a tri-motored Fokker transport, was about 10 miles southeast of Fresno, while enroute from Mather Field, Sacramento, to March Field. At an altitude of 2,000 feet the propeller of the right wing motor shattered. One of the pieces tore a gaping hole in the wing surface.

Deft Builder's Touches Make a Modernized Home

BATTERED FRAME HOUSE NOW CLEAN, HANDSOME

SHINGLED COTTAGES ARE POPULAR

Often few radical changes are necessary when modernizing the home. With a few deft touches the experienced builder can transform a battered frame house into a handsome cottage which has every desirable feature that makes the home attractive and architecturally up-to-date.

An instance of this illustrated on this page. The before and after modernizing views are illuminative and indicate clearly what can be done with an old worn-out battered piece of property.

Once Weather-beaten
Before the house was modernized it was a weather-beaten old home. The lines were of an architectural style long since marked obsolete, the clapping was brown and dingy, the interior was dark, gloomy and uncomfortable. Many modern conveniences were lacking and the owners felt that they were existing rather than living.

Eastly Modernized
When it was decided that the old house should be modernized and improved in appearance, the builder made a number of suggestions which met with favor.

The length of the front porch was extended to the side of the building while its width was increased. The average front porch is entirely too shallow for comfortable use, especially if it is to be used by a group of persons. Instead of five feet, as is often customary, this figure should be increased to eight or ten feet.

The design of the porch was also altered, the balustrated effect being eliminated in favor of a solid parapet type. The old time, slender machine-turned posts are now superseded by broad square pillars. The former slant roof is now hipped at one end, giving a better appearance.

Dormers Increase Light
At the front over the porch roof a dormer has been included to increase the natural lighting of the room in this wing of the house. The two small three-light windows have been discarded. Today a flood of light enters the interior, thanks to the new dormer.

This alteration also increased the body masses of the upper floor and decidedly improves the appearance of the structure.

Shingle Sides
Instead of the older type wooden clapboards, stained shingles are now used as siding. Stained shingles are constantly growing in favor among modernizing authorities as a suitable siding for the small home.

Shingles have a homey, intimate atmosphere which is not found in other types of siding. They aid in giving the building a low, sheltered appearance. The application of the shingles is economical as it is never necessary to remove the former clapboards, the shingles being nailed over the older siding.

In this installation the foundation lines have been lowered by bringing down the shingle edge to within six or eight inches of the ground. This aids in giving the home a low, clinging, sheltered feeling.

Interior Modernized
While remodeling and improving the exterior of the home, the owner took advantage of the occasion to make suitable improvements on the inside.

NOISY PIPES MAY LEAD TO REPAIR BILLS

Keeping the plumbing system from hammering and "chattering" is a simple matter if plumbing goods of standard quality are selected and installed by a reputable plumbing contractor.

Sounds as of hammering inside the pipes when faucets are closed or opened, are due to loose washers or worn valve stems. When such defects occur, the water is shut off more suddenly than it should be and the water column is forced to stop with a bump. The way to prevent it is to have good washers well installed at the outset.

While the chief objection to these noises is the annoyance they cause, there are other reasons why they should be guarded against or remedied as soon as they occur. "Chattering" is hard on the entire system. One loose washer may cause such vibrations that others will work loose. Eventually damaging leaks may occur.

Hammering is, if anything, even more potentially dangerous. If it becomes bad enough it may weaken the joints.

Now a Shingle Covered Home

Modernization is not necessary complex as these before and after views show

FOUNDATION PLANTINGS ARE IMPORTANT TOUCH TO HOUSE

Do not overlook the importance of properly planting the grounds after you have completed the remodeling and improving of the exterior of the home. This is fully as important as making the lines of the structure up-to-date. The foundation plants do much to soften the newness of the modernizing and to take away the bareness which is present along the walls.

Often these foundation plantings are simply an extended flower garden growing next to the foundations of the building. The masses of green with the bright hues of the flowers themselves when in bloom do much to remove the rawness that is evident otherwise. Again, the foundation plantings may consist of shrubbery. It is important, however, to select varieties that do not grow high and otherwise these shrubs may overshadow the windows. Only when the house is near the public sidewalk will the home owner desire high shrubs to prevent passers-by from gazing at the family within.

Dwarf firs or pines are sometimes selected for foundation plantings. Often trailing vines or rose bushes make desirable plantings. These may be trained alongside the window, gracefully setting it off and adding to its attractiveness.

If you are not acquainted with the proper variety of foundation planting to place against your house, get in touch with the nearest nursery salesman and ask for his advice. These men are familiar with the plants that are best for this purpose and will be glad to make suggestions. Foundation plantings are not expensive. They are decidedly an improvement to the grounds and should be used by all home lovers.

BUILT-IN ACCESSORIES AID MODERNIZING PLAN THE LUMBER DEALER CAN HELP

The family who are thinking of modernizing their home can do well to get in touch with the lumber dealer to find how he can aid their program through the introduction of built-in accessories.

An array of cabinets, cupboards and other fixtures have been revised which may be installed in the home to induce added comfort and aid the household in their quest for modernization. Many of these accessories may be purchased at moderate prices. All are worthy of serious consideration.

Kitchen Aids
In the kitchen, for instance, there is an array of built-in fixtures that every housewife needs. The use of pantry safes or cabinets will eliminate the use of the old-fashioned pantry. These cabinets are installed along one or more walls of the room and may be placed so that the housewife may take but a few steps to reach them from sink to work table.

In the kitchen, too, may be placed a built-in ironing board which, when not in use, may be folded up and hid away in a recess in the wall.

Many families like the idea of a breakfast nook, but are not able to devote the space for this convenience. For these, a folding nook has been devised which also folds up when not in service. It may be attached to the wall or may be placed in a recess in the wall. The main requirement of this contrivance is that there be ample space to accommodate the breakfast nook when it is opened.

China Closets
Other built-in aids are china closets which may be installed in the dining room. These are designed in number of patterns, a favorite being a type which fits in a set of shelves with a broad door which is paneled below and glazed above. Sometimes a pair of these are used if the dishes, glassware and other dining room accessories are plentiful.

China closets of this type eliminate the need for purchasing buffet and other expensive pieces of furniture. It takes up but little space and allows the complete supply of china to be placed in the dining room without crowding this part of the house.

CIRCUS SEASON OF NATION GETS UNDER WAY TODAY

Indiana City, the Winter Home Of Five Big Shows, Is Agog

Peru, Ind., May 5—(UP)—A snow-white circus tent was raised at Peru, Ind., the "Circus City"—winter home of five leading circuses—and the circus season officially was under way.

The real circus season opened when the tinselled and painted troupers took to the road on their annual tour that covers all important centers of the world, although for several weeks before the actual season opening, the best acts from the five companies that winter in Peru were showing at the Chicago Coliseum in the "biggest show on earth."

Circus men—the veterans—say the game "isn't what it used to be." They claim the show business has taken its place beside other lines of big business; that mergers have converted many small, struggling shows into a few gigantic organizations.

Forty years ago each circus owner, alone, had to face the weekly problem of meeting his payroll. Now, one man, John Ringling, owns most of the shows. Jerry Mugivan, who died this year, and Bert Bowers engineered the first merger when they formed the American Circus Corporation. It combined John Robinson, Sells Floto, Hagenbeck Wallace, Al G. Barnes, Howe's Great London, Gollmar Brothers and the Walter Main Shows.

John Ringling became the most envied man in the world in the eyes of the American youth last year. In the second and greatest merger in the circus field, Ringling, owner of the Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey show, assumed ownership of the American Circus Corporation.

Just as the circus business has grown in size and financial importance, so have the salaries of the show headliners. Tom Mix, former movie favorite in western pictures, performing at a reported salary of $75,000 a season, is said to be the highest paid trouper in the business.

Mix, with the Sells-Floto show, travels in a private railroad car; his living quarters in one end and accommodations for Tony, his famous horse, in the other. It is said to be a toss-up as to which end of the car is the most palatial.

Troupers' accommodations today are in startling contrast to those of yesterday—when showmen lived in Pullman berths all summer and took infrequent baths in buckets of cold water.

Despite the changes, the same old spirit that brings performers back year after year to wander from city to town, still remains—and probably will as long as there is left a bit of tinsel or shred of the "big top."

A circus isn't a business, the veterans say. It's more like an intermittent fever that strikes its victims every spring.

Peru, winter home of shows as long as the oldest inhabitant can remember, knows the power of the circus "fever." Winter quarters, built along the winding Mississinewa river, have grown from a few ramshackle buildings to a small city in itself, drawing attention from thousands of tourists every season.

Before the annual road trips begin each spring, weekly shows on Sunday afternoons draw crowds of persons from all over Indiana and neighboring states. Thirty-five thousand spectators jammed the circus grounds this spring to see Tom Mix' pre-season rodeo.

The circus grounds cover 1,000 acres, with the buildings confined to a 50-acre area. The hippopotami have their swimming pool in one barn and the bears an outside arena and pool. The horse barn is equipped with rings for winter practice, and the "cat" barn an arena for coaching lions and tigers.

A lumber yard, harness and paint shops produce all wagons used by

Tented City Where Ohio Convicts Are Quartered

Here's the tented city that has been erected inside the Ohio State Penitentiary walls at Columbus to house convicts while their cells, from which doors and locks were torn by rioters, are being repaired. National guardsmen with fixed bayonets patrol the stockade, surrounded by a 14-foot barbed wire enclosure.

the shows. The wardrobe department where the spangled costumes are designed and made, occupied a whole floor of a building in Peru. Expert engineers superintend the electric power plant on the grounds, and each show has its own lighting plant for road trips.

Among other permanent features of the winter home is a hospital, living quarters and dining room.

And as to the performers themselves—there is 24-year-old Clyde Beatty, a lion tamer, already acknowledged leader of his profession. John Helliot, veteran trainer, every day, for years, has put his head into the mouth of Nero, a huge Numarian lion, with all the equanimity of a man lighting a cigaret. Mabel Stark wrestles with tigers—sometimes with a disastrous outcome. There is "Cheerful" Gardner, elephant man, who has earned his cognomen because even his oldest friends never have seen him smile. Nevertheless, "Cheerful" is reputed to be the dean of "bull" handlers.

"Poodles" Hanneford leads the long list of circus riders whose feats on the backs of a galloping horse thrill followers of the "big top."

The circus profession has its "ups and downs," troupers will admit, but the creed—from the highest paid performer to the native African Negro who sometimes "pinch hits" for the wild man—"the show must go on" keeps the circus a world headliner in spite of mergers and modern methods.

OREGON NEWS

Oregon—A very fine musical program was given Sunday evening, May 4, at St. Paul's Lutheran church. Russell Bickhaus of Chicago and Franklin Lundstrom rendered violin numbers and Mrs. Jane Harris Stiles a number of vocal selections.

The Rock River Golf Club opened Thursday night, May 1, with a scramble supper, followed by music and dancing.

Mrs. Henry Stoffregen passed away Wednesday noon after a long illness.

Mrs. Frank Seibert is a patient at the Dixon hospital.

Mrs. Edgar Jones and Mrs. Ralph Clark entertained their bridge clubs at luncheon at the club house Tuesday.

After a stay of several weeks at the Dixon hospital following an operation for appendicitis, Mrs. Herman Lebowich returned to her home here Wednesday.

Phyllis Holm and guest Miss Olive Rott, students at Rockford College, spent the week end at Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reichenbach and Mrs. Charles Reichenbach spent Sunday in Rockford, guests in the Eli Hoover home.

Mrs. Martin Peterman Sr., who has spent the winter in the home of her son, Martin Peterman Jr., left Sunday night for Omaha, Neb., to spend several weeks visiting relatives there.

J. R. Vallee of Buenos Aires, S. A. is a guest for several days in the Robert Elyre home.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Roger Burke at Oregon hospital, Saturday.

Harper Koonitz and Homer Bachman have purchased the Capper Grocery in Mt. Morris, which they expect to take over June 1st.

Mrs. M. J. Breen and daughter of LaGrange spent part of last week in the Joe Springer home.

Randolph Diamond, Superintendent

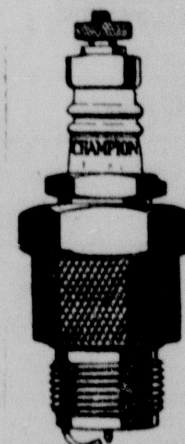

ent of the Paragon Mfg. Co., has been chosen Scoutmaster for the local Scouts. A general organization meeting will be held Friday night at which E. W. Schellenberger of the Rockford Area will assist.

HOME INDUSTRY PATRONIZED
Berlin — (UP) — Believing that patronizing home industries should begin at home, the management of the Reichstag restaurant has cut white bread and oranges from its menu. Their place will be taken by rye bread and German-grown apples.

CHAMPION SPARK PLUGS

MANY of our customers need no inducement to change their spark plugs every 10,000 miles, other than the assured continuation of the better performance which this change means to every engine.

This is Champion National Change Week. First established six years ago, it is now a yearly reminder to motorists throughout the city to share in the benefits enjoyed by changing to a new set of Champions every year.

Last year all our customers who installed new Champions at the 10,000 mile mark secured more power and speed, faster acceleration, and all-around better performance and economy for an entire year.

This change actually cost them nothing, for new Champions save their price in less gas and oil alone.

All motor car manufacturers recommend that car owners change their spark plugs every 10,000 miles, and millions do so, just as they change their oil at more frequent intervals. They do this because they recognize the transition to which every spark plug, no matter how well made, is subject in modern high speed, high compression engines.

The insulator becomes carbon encrusted and the electrodes corroded through pitting and burning. This diffuses and weakens the spark. Combustion is not complete. Gas is wasted and seeps by the pistons to dilute the oil. Power is lost. The engine becomes sluggish. Speed is impaired.

New spark plugs change all this. There is more complete burning of the gas. Power is increased. Sluggishness is gone as the engine picks up more rapidly. Speed is restored.

Although Champions will continue to function almost indefinitely, there has always been economy in changing them every 10,000 miles, or at least once a year. The economy of continuing Champion's better performance, of the saving in gas and oil, of freedom from trouble—all these are achieved.

Bring your car to us, have a complete set of Champions installed, and enjoy better performance for the next year.

Change Your Spark Plugs This Week

All motor car manufacturers recommend a complete new set of spark plugs for owners' cars every 10,000 miles. They restore power, speed and acceleration, and more than pay for themselves in gas and oil saved.

Right here in this town, more cars use Champions than all other spark plugs combined.

We sell more because they are better spark plugs for every engine.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

NATALIE CONVERSE tries to conquer her jealousy over her husband, ALAN. But when he is called to the home of HERNA-DINE LAMONT, a popular night club hostess, she demands that he refuse to go. He explains that Bernadine is the widow of a war buddy who had saved his life.
 The actress tells Alan her doctor has given her only a short time to live and asks him to care for her son, BOBBY. He promises and tries to tell Natalie but she refuses to believe his denials.
 Alan goes out and phones Phil-
 lipa to meet him for an evening.
 They dance and, in a reckless mood, Alan asks her for a kiss.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XV

"WHY?"
 Phillipa simply put to Alan the question she could not answer for herself. Why did he want to kiss her? He knew and she didn't —so she asked him.

But her manner of asking it, and her intonation, were neither sinner direct. She was something of an actress. Phillipa. She managed with one word and a little tremor in her fingers—the fingers in Alan's palm—to convey a wealth of meaning.

There was helplessness, shyness, pride and gallantry, sacrifice and submission in her voice.

Alan felt that she asked him,
 "What do you want of me, to possess my heart to satisfy a whim?"
 And yet there was no bitterness just a touch of wonder communated to him. He heard the quiet need of resignation as she spoke and thought he might have hurt her. Yet he could not honestly proclaim a great longing to have her love.

There remained to him, however,
 a fairness equal to her own.

"I don't know, Phillipa," he said,
 "unless it was just to find out if you would. You see, I wasn't sure and—"

Phillipa laughed. "I see," she broke in, "you've been thinking about what I said tonight. I hope it was true, and you want to know if I really believe you."

Alan did not like to say to himself that Phillipa was in love with him. He was too lacking in conceit to entertain the thought, but he could not escape the conclusion. In one breath she had told him that she wanted him to kiss her. He could not believe that it was a wanton wish. In the next breath

she had allowed him to comply with the wish.

Well, one thing was certain; she had a tremendous honesty. Alan was touched by her manner of handling the situation. But it set him on guard at the same time. And he did not want to offend her. And he understood all that she had said to mean that she did not want him to either. What else could she have meant by saying it would make her unhappy if he kissed her?

Clearly, she had put him on a high pedestal. If he fell off, because of a kiss, it would disap-point her. The whole thing made him uneasy.

"Well, good night," he said against her silence.

She pressed his hand gently with her imprisoned fingers, and drew them away. Still she said nothing.
 "I'm no hero, Phillipa," Alan declared brusquely. "I'm just a very mere man in a common mess."

"Alan—"

"I'm not going to talk about it," he assured her quickly. "But I want you to know that I appreciate your going out with me tonight. I realize that it isn't the sort of thing you do ordinarily."

"Oh, Alan, please," Phillipa choked. "I wanted to go. I don't mind you knowing that. It's been wonderful. But we mustn't be cheap. Please go now, and let's remember that I'm your secretary."

Alan took her at her word, and left. Thinking it over, after she had gone to bed, Phillipa wondered if she'd made her pose of resistance too strong. Well, it was too late to mend the mistake now. It mistake it was. And she had from Alan his admission that he was in a "common mess." Domestic trouble, of course. Her thoughts, when she fell asleep, were satisfying enough to bring a smile of triumph to her lips.

Alan was surprised to see, late as it was, a light in his wife's room, when the taxi he had taken from the station entered his driveway.

He hoped she wouldn't want to talk with him. She must have heard the car, he knew. Nevertheless, he went in quietly. Natalie did not appear. Alan got to sleep without going through one of the dreaded scenes.

When he awoke, in the morning,
 he thought, with distaste, of breakfasting with her. He wished, for a reason which he did not analyze that he did not have to see Natalie before he went to the office.

It was the guilt of a conscience that had unsuccessfully sought to rationalize his conduct with Phillipa.

Dressed for Flying Six Miles Up

No, this isn't a visitor from the planet Mars. It's merely an officer in the U. S. army air corps wearing the new regulation oxygen helmet for flying at a height of 20,000 feet, as a number of them did in California recently when they broke the world's altitude record for fighting planes in formation. Oxygen tubes connect with the poles shown in the mouthpiece. The suits are electrically heated as the temperature is 40 degrees below zero.

A French scientist asserts that a new brush for cleaning between the can age wine by subjecting it to the teeth can be adjusted at any to an electric current of 120,000 angle to its handle and its bristles are renewable.

WISCONSIN ONLY
UNBEATEN TEAM
OF BIG TEN NOW

Badgers Won From Minnesota Team Saturday for 3rd Victory

Chicago, May 5—(AP)—Wisconsin today was the proprietor of the only undefeated baseball team in the Western Conference, three clubs having toppled out of the select circle last week-end.

The Badgers made the previously undefeated Minnesota team its third straight victim Saturday, 5 to 4, while Illinois bounced Ohio State out of the unbeaten class by the same score. Michigan played raggedly and was defeated, 8 to 5, by Northwestern which gained a tie for second place with Illinois by the victory.

Chicago definitely joined Purdue as hopelessly out of the running by suffering its fourth straight defeat and its second by Indiana by a 9 to 1 score.

Wisconsin will meet Northwestern twice this week, playing at Evanston Wednesday and at Madison Saturday. Ohio State today entered a three-game schedule for the week, meeting Purdue at Lafayette, Ind., tomorrow. Michigan will play the first game of another three game series, meeting Chicago at Chicago. Two games are down for Friday. Ohio State will meet Indiana at Bloomington, while Purdue will invade Michigan.

Three games Saturday will finish the eight-game setup of the week. Ohio State will play at Chicago, and Illinois will tackle Michigan at Ann Arbor, with the second Northwestern Wisconsin dual to round out the list.

SURVIVORS OF HAYMARKET IN REUNION MEET

Thirteen Former Policemen Observe the 44th. Anniversary

Chicago, May 5—(UP)—Stirring events of the Haymarket riot of almost fifty years ago were recalled yesterday by 13 silver-haired former policemen who gathered in the Des-Plains Street station to observe the 44th anniversary of the eventful night of May 4, 1886.

Thirteen of the "city's finest" of another day circled the historic police station and reviewed the turbulent night of over two score years ago when with their comrades, they marched out of the headquarters to face an anarchist bomb which killed eight of their number and wounded seventy-five.

The thirteen grizzled veterans who observed the 44th anniversary of Chicago's most famous riot are all over 30 years old. Former Capt. Frank P. Tyrell, president of the association told how the sputtering bomb was hurled into the closely packed lines of police when an attempt was made to disperse red rioters. An unknown number of agitators were killed, and four were later hanged as a result of the bomb throwing.

"Everlasting Punishment" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 4.

The Golden Text was, "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord" (Lamentations 3:39, 40).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit; for why will ye die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God; wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye" (Ezekiel 18:31, 32).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Justice requires reformation of the sinner. Mercy cancels the debt only when justice approves" (p. 22).

SHIRES STILL LIKES HIMSELF
BEST OF EUNCH

Tells How Hard Foes
Will Find It To Get Him Out

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent

New York, May 5—(UP)—"The only trouble they're going to have with me from now on is getting me out when I come to bat," said Art Shires, colorful Chicago White Sox first baseman, in explaining today how he has turned over a new leaf since his many escapades of last season.

"When I agreed to quit baseball I passed up $60,000," said Shires, "and that's more money than I'll save out of baseball in ten years. Since the two don't mix, I decided to play baseball and behave myself because I love to play the game. I'd be crazy to get into trouble again as I lost $3500 or almost half my salary, in fines last year. That's not going to happen again."

Shires denied that he had a feud with Johnny Hodapp, 190 pound second baseman of the Cleveland Indians, growing out of two collisions with him. Shires suffered a ruptured blood vessel in his back when he collided with Hodapp at Cleveland April 22, and only returned to the game yesterday, making his appearance as a pinch-hitter against the N. Y. Yankees.

"Hodapp and I are good friends," said Shires, "it just happened that we had two collisions, and the second one at Cleveland had nothing to do with the first one at Chicago."

The change in Shires this season may be partially explained by his attitude towards his new manager, Donie Bush.

"Bush is a hustler and fighter," said Shires, "and knows his business. That's the kind of a guy I like to play baseball for. I'm a hustler and I had rather play ball in a class D league than sit on the bench in the majors."

Shires said he had no malice towards Lena Blackburn, former White Sox manager, with whom he had three fights last season.

Always the booster, Shires thinks the White Sox are a first division team this season and will volunteer information about the improvement of every player on the club.

"WET" PARTIES
AT CONVENTIONS
MUST BE ENDED

Government Starts To Prosecute Peoria
"Entertainers"

Springfield, Ill., May 5—(UP)—Wet "whoopie" parties held in connection with conventions are taboo in central Illinois, according to United States Attorney Walter M. Provine.

To emphasize this policy Provine plans to hold the trial of three men indicted by a federal grand jury at Peoria last week, on charges of violation of the national prohibition law before Judge Louis Fitzhenry at Peoria next week.

The trio, all prominent Peorians, and a corporation were indicted as a result of a raid on a convention of insurance men at Peoria last March. The men, B. G. Moutier, president of the Reliance Agency Corporation, William A. Pfeiffer, sales manager, and A. M. Murphy, alleged bartender, were charged with possession and conspiracy to violate the prohibition law. The Sud Seito Tur Ern, which is a community hall where the alleged wet party was staged, was the corporation named.

According to Provine this is the first attempt on the part of the government to prosecute under the dry law in connection with the holding of conventions.
